

1

Chukasoba Tokyo Gretschi

We serve Chinese-style noodles in a sea bream broth. Our signature dish is the 'Seabura White Soy Sauce Soba.' In the evening, we also offer small appetizers to enjoy before your noodles. Light options like reduced-noodle portions and simple 'kake soba' (no toppings) are available, perfect for a gentle meal to end the day. Solo diners are welcome. A cozy shop with just six counter seats.

Asagaya Events

A

Otonano Ennichi(Apr/Aug/Sep)

Held in Ichibangai, the event features numerous food stalls and flea market vendors. Enjoy samba performances in summer and Awa Odori dances in autumn.

B

Asagaya Star Road Festival(May)

A lively festival packed with street food, music, street performances, and traditional Japanese dance.

C

Asagaya Takiginoh(May)

You can watch classical performing arts by torchlight at an open-air Noh theater. Experience this sacred ritual, said to have originated in the Heian period, brought to life in modern-day Asagaya.

D

Asagaya Nomiya Festival(May/Nov)

A bar-hopping event featuring over 100 local Japanese pubs. A great way to discover new places and meet new people.

E

Yuyake Market(May/Nov)

Hosted by the Kōyūkai of the Matsuyama-dori Shopping Street, this lively event features a flea market, food and drink stalls, and fun attractions for children.

F

Asagaya Tanabata Festival(Aug)

A major event with a long history dating back to 1954. The giant papier-mâché creations handcrafted by local shops are a cultural tradition.

G

Asagaya Shinmeigu Shrine Reitaisai(Sep)

Lined with various stalls, this lively event features mikoshi processions from local neighborhood associations and traditional performing arts. A beloved seasonal tradition in Asagaya.

H

Asagaya Jazz Streets(Oct)

For two days, the entire town of Asagaya transforms into a jazz stage, with performances happening all across the city.

Asagaya is a town full of unique culture. Local Event Calendar.

Mitsuya Store

Established in 1924, this long-standing liquor shop knows every corner of Asagaya like the back of its hand. Guided by human connections and a unique sense of taste, it offers a carefully curated selection of quality products. Knowledgeable and dedicated staff are always ready to meet customers' diverse needs. The shop also features a standing bar area called 'Ura no Heya' ('The Back Room').

google map ▶

Sumibi Daidokoro Torimaru

Now in its 26th year in Asagaya, this restaurant specializes in charcoal-grilled chicken, carefully crafted seasonal dishes, and a curated selection of premium sake. The jidori (local chicken) used for our yakitori mainly comes from Kinsou-dori, a high-quality breed from Chiba Prefecture. Each skewer is grilled with care over binchotan charcoal for authentic flavor.
